Happy Father's Day!

Father's Day is special to me as a son of a great man and father of incredible daughters.

My amazing dad, Larry King, was the smartest, handiest, toughest, and the most loyal and caring man I've ever known. Every day I strive to be like him. It's difficult to put into words who he was and what he stood for. Although he's been gone awhile, I can't talk about him without tears. He taught me the usual "Dad" things like: 1. how to throw a curveball, 2. how to tackle someone fairly but make them afraid to be tackled again, 3. how to compete hard, but more importantly how to help someone up after a game, and 4. how to be a good sport. My dad owned King and Son Electric and I was fortunate enough to work for him for 17 years. I miss those days and value every second of that time now. I would give anything to spend one more day with him! Unfortunately, my dad passed away at the young age of 55. I am very grateful for everything he taught me, especially the professional skill set that I have, the value of hard work, and to be honest and always stick to your word. My dad taught me the value of family, to love my children while giving them the tools to survive in life, and to have self-respect and compassion.

I became a single father when my daughters were three and one. Because of my dad, I was up for the challenge to be the best father I could be. My greatest accomplishment in life was raising my girls to be educated, successful young women. I love them for the way they care for others, their fierce loyalty to each other, and their acceptance of people. My two daughters Kelsie and Kirsti are proud alumni of Central Michigan University. Kelsie is the Executive Director for Michigan Main Street, Boyne City and a loving wife to husband Joe, a Michigan State Trooper. Kirsti is the Human Resources Director for Xcite Advertising in Chicago and the funniest human on the planet. My step-daughter Lauren is a University of Michigan alumna, a Cytotechnologist at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, and a newlywed to husband Kyle.

My girls have become my best friends and I pray I have done for them everything my Dad did for me.

Resident Spotlight

Mrs. Lucille Myers, or Lucy, has lived at McFarlan Home for about a year. Lucy graduated high school from St. John's Rodney W. Wilson High School. She went on to nurse training and became a registered nurse. Lucy was a hard working nurse at Hurley Hospital for many years.

She raised 3 beautiful girls on a farm in St. John's, Michigan. Her time was mostly consumed with gardening, taking care of the yard, and taking care of her animals. Lucy explained that she always had at least one dog - who she would call Button - on the farm.

Now Lucy spends her time enjoying visits from her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She is also an active resident at McFarlan Home, participating in many daily activities, such as bingo, crafts, and baking.

Summer Is Here!

The day we've waited for all winter long is here: the First Day of Summer!

Summer means warmer weather, open windows, time spent outside, and lots of sunshine. And sometimes it means getting a little wet!

What are your favorite summer memories? S'mores around the bonfire, long drives up north, camping in the woods, or weekends at the lake?

Whatever summer means to you, this year - starting with June 21st - get up, get moving, and get outside to soak up the sun!
