Our Town, Our Story

McFarlan Villages celebrates being in the heart of downtown Flint. Like Detroit, Flint is in the midst of a renaissance, growing and improving every day. The revitalization is changing how people see Flint. There are new people moving from other communities to the city to experience what we who live here have known all along—Flint is great!

Flint is also a city that supports aging with great public transportation to area stores, Crim walking and running groups, and bustling senior-community centers.

Everyone who calls Flint home must work together to spread the news of its greatness. Let us shine our lights so brightly that we outshine all the others. Let us make it so that when people see the Downtown-Flint sign they want their memories made here, in our town. Let us make it so that they want Flint to be a part of their story.

Change the culture in your own way. Be teachers of kindness, patience, and understanding. Live your best life, be the best version of yourself, and others will follow your example.

Lucky are we to be the authors of our stories; write yours with no regret.
